Early life. Mansfield was born in Lambeth, London on 9 October 1933, to Sidney George (a gas fitter) and Rose Lillian Mansfield. Mansfield is the youngest of three brothers.^x Small animal irradiators enable the interrogation of translationally relevant irradiation protocols and beam geometries. This study reports on the characterisation of early and late pulmonary toxicities occurring both in- and out-of-field, and the corresponding clinically-relevant dosimetric parameters. In physics, a field is a physical quantity, represented by a number or tensor, that has a value for each point in space-time. For example, on a weather map, the surface wind velocity is described by assigning a vector to each point on a map.
