Bigger than fear or shame or that voice in your head that whispers that you are not enough. Here's a selection of 60 tiny love stories recently submitted to our sister site, Makes Me Think, that not only made us think, but warmed our hearts and made us smile too. The Waxwork is a scary short story by AM Burrage about a journalist who spends the night in a wax museum that contains dummies and mannequins of infamous murderers and serial killers that seem almost alive.
