Women Give Men Too Much Power is far from a "man-hating" book, it is about real issues that face women and families. It gives a perspective focusing on the ugliness that men don't want to confront: women becoming the head of household, keeping in-laws in check, and how some men are intimidated by successful women. It discusses how if men would only become successful in the things of God, they would know how to treat women right...loving and respecting her like royalty. Women not only think of these guys as lame and dorky, but women HATE guys who give her too much attention and who make themselves submissive. Even though a woman is a sensitive human being, this does not mean she is looking for another sensitive human being. Why do American women have too much power over men?
